[redacted] Fort Worth, Texas,
[redacted] telephone number [redacted] after being advised of the identity of Special Agents (SAs) [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI), was interviewed concerning a threat made to Senator LLOYD BENTSEN.

[redacted] advised that it is indeed true that he did write the letter to the Senator. He stated that he has written several other letters to other elected officials in hope to arouse their interest concerning the gun control issue. [redacted] stated that he was wondering why the FBI was coming to his house to talk to him concerning this letter. He stated that he has written many letters in the past, and has never received such response as he has received on this occasion.

[redacted] advised that the threats which were stated in the letter were notifying the Senator that he [redacted] was very serious about the gun control issue. He advised that the elected officials in which we currently have in office are too weak and that they do not remember who elected them to their present offices. [redacted] stated that he helped to elect some of these officials, and with this in mind, he felt that it was only appropriate that he could write and tell them of his inner most feelings. [redacted] advised that he feels like he needs to let the elected officials know his situation and how he feels on the issue since he does pay taxes.

[redacted] stated that he is a Christian, and that God would judge the senator very harshly for not standing up for the rights of the American citizens. He stated, when questioned about his ownership of guns, that he would not advise anyone of that fact. [redacted] believes, according to his statements, that if he notifies anyone that he owns and guns, that they will take the guns away from him.

[redacted] advised that it is constitutional right to bear arms and that he would continue to do that.

[redacted] was then informed that the threats in which he made to Senator LLOYD BENTSEN were very serious threats. It was at that point that [redacted] stated that he understood that the threats were bad, but that this was the only way he could bring the Senator's attention to the plight of the American citizen. [redacted] stated that most American citizens do not realize that our rights are being violated on every hand.

[redacted] was then informed that the threats he made were illegal, and that the FBI was taking the threats very seriously. [redacted] then advised that he understood that if he received threats like that, that he would be concerned also. [redacted] then advised that he would change his tone in writing to the Senators.
